BROWSER

“Pantry”

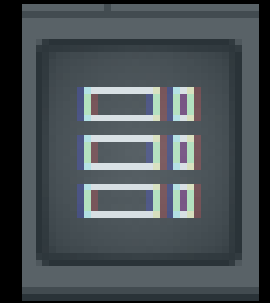

- Library / collection of everything you need to make music.
- “Ingredients” - Samples & Plugins
 - Drums
 - Synthesizers & Instruments
 - Effects
- Choose your sounds during “Sound Selection”

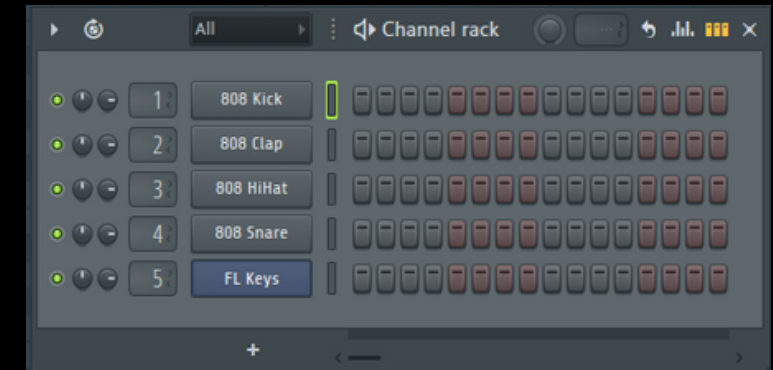

CHANNEL RACK

“Cutting Board”

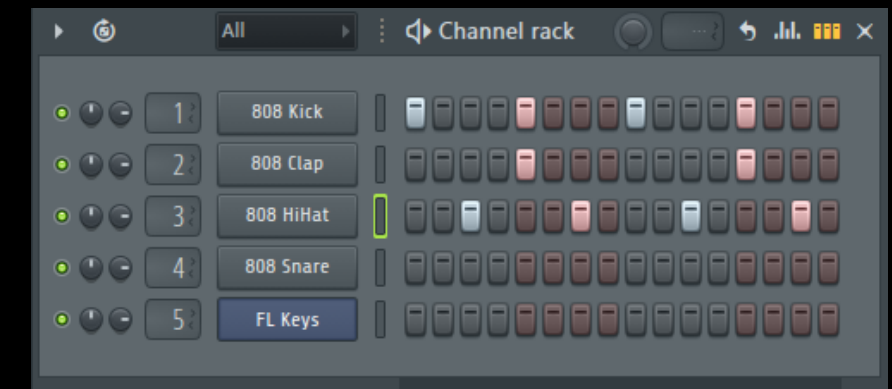

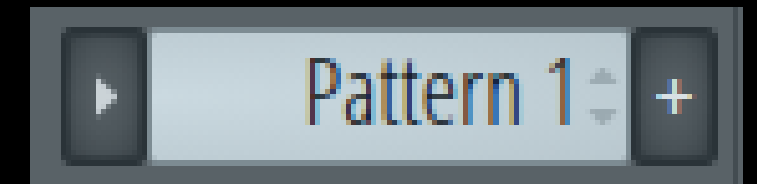

- Where you can see your collection of “ingredients”
- Overview of Patterns / Loops
 - Can adjust basic controls - Volume & Panning
 - Create loops with singular or multiple ingredients here
- Perfect for preparing basic “ingredients” - Drums

PATTERNS

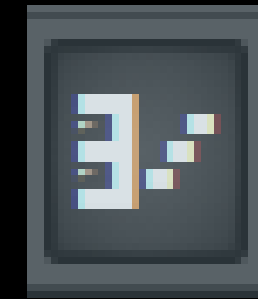

“Main Entree / Side Dishes”

- Loops we create to make a full song
- Main Dish or Side Dish
 - We prepare some ingredients / sounds together
- Raw Ingredients (doesn't require cooking)
 - i.e. salad → Drums

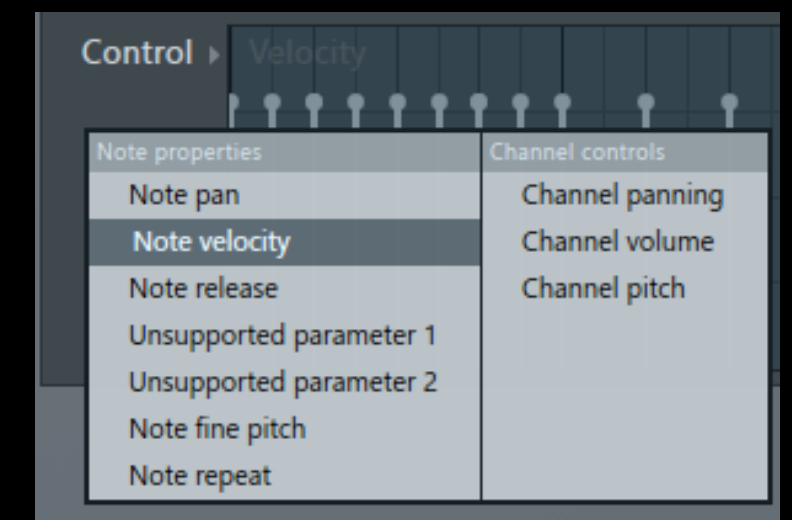

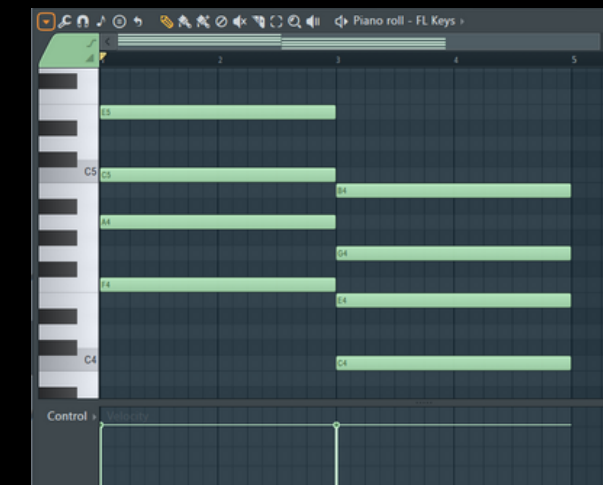

PIANO ROLL

“Cook Zone”

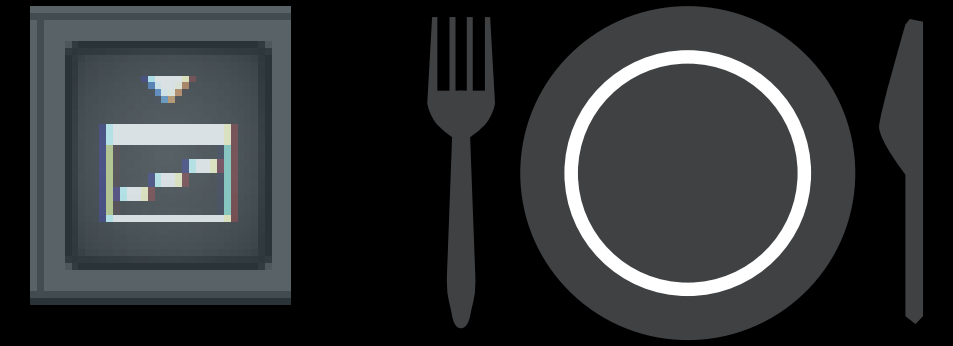

- Those ingredients we actually need to cook go here
 - Ones where we have to actually change notes
- Draw notes to make more complex, melodic patterns
 - Melodies or Chord Progressions
- Can adjust additional controls - Velocity, Panning, Pitch
- This is where we prepare the “Main Dish”

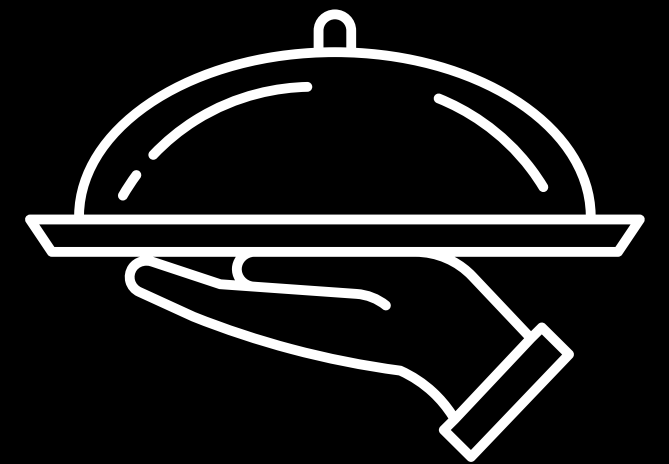

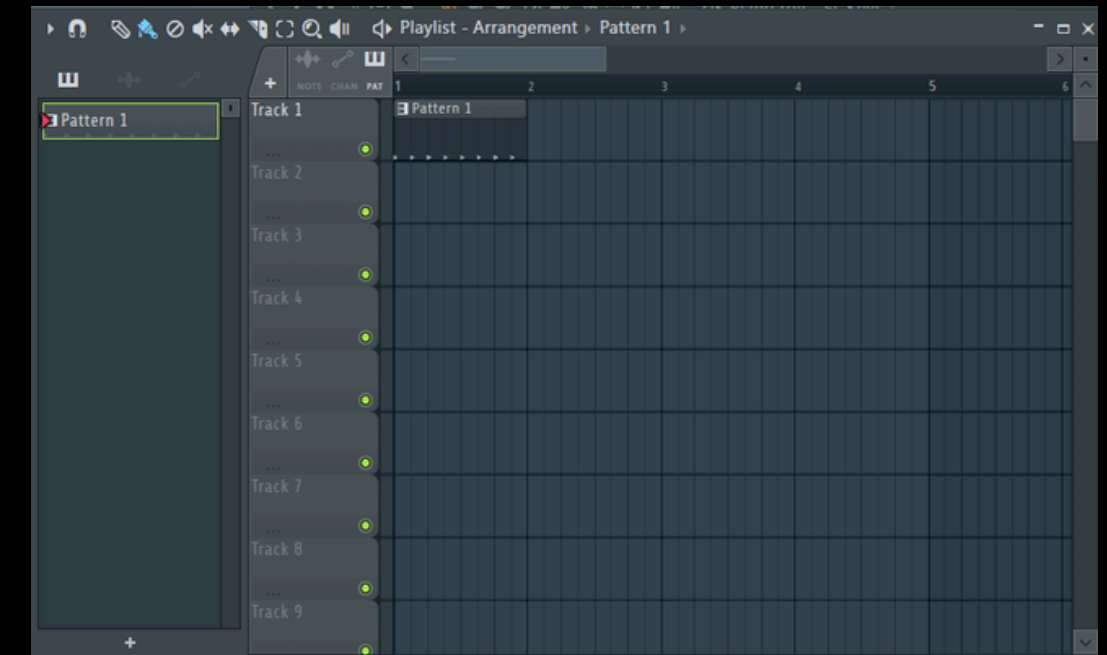

PLAYLIST

“Plating”

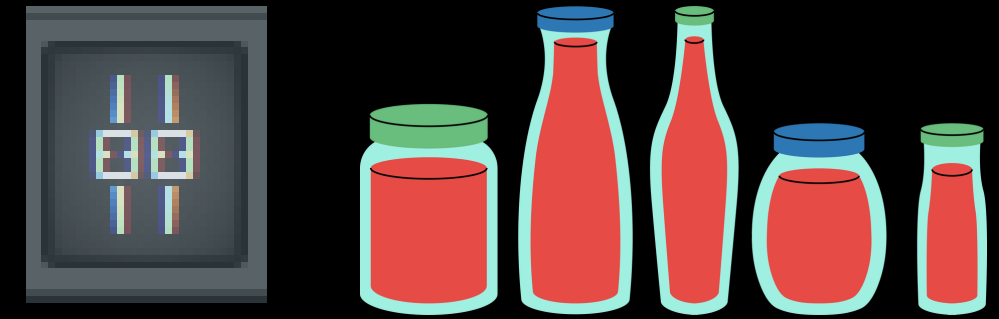

- Where you put your dish together before we serve
- Make it presentable
- After you create Patterns, we have to put them together & make it make sense together
- Place the Patterns in your Timeline
- Building Blocks or Legos

MIXER

“Sauce & Seasoning”

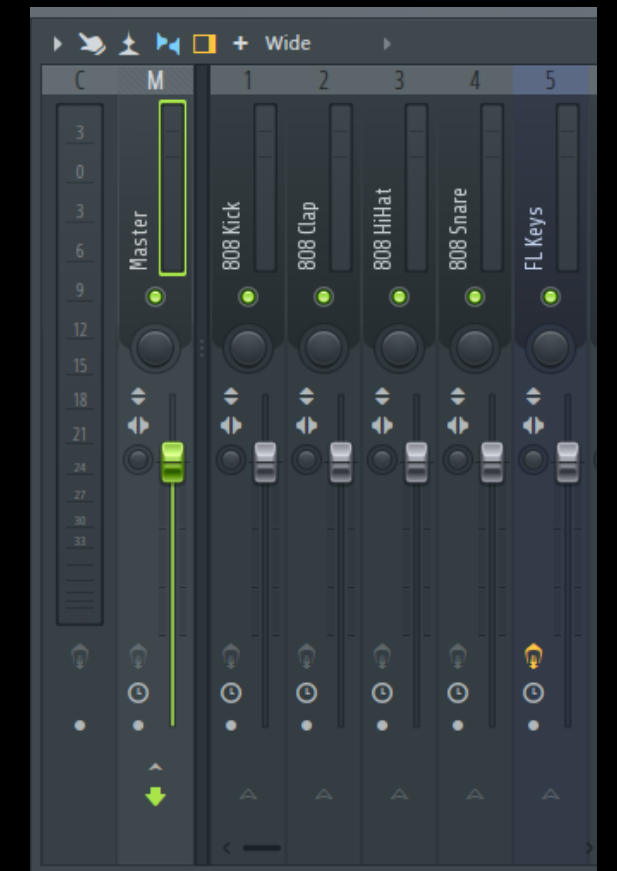

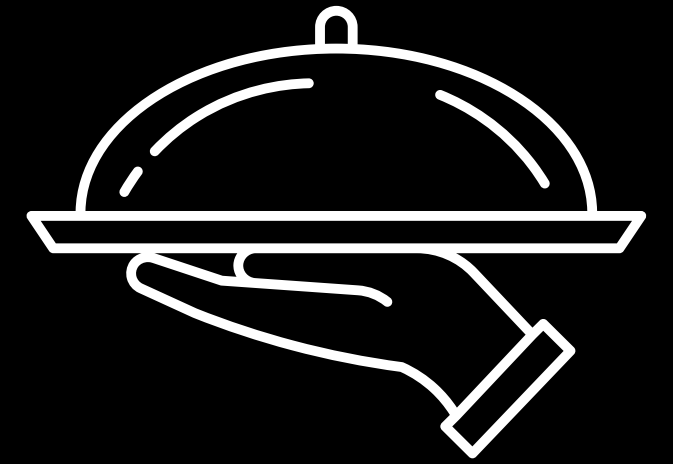

- Give more flavor to the ingredient
 - Where we polish the sound
- We can add Effects (sauce / seasoning)
 - i.e. Reverb
- We have to find a balance of flavor & sound
- In-depth control of the sounds

MASTER

“The Final Dish”

- The final product, the actual dish itself (your song)
- Sometimes it might taste bad... could be:
 - Bad ingredients
 - Overcooked
 - Underseasoned
 - We keep adjusting it until it tastes good
- Master Channel is located in the Mixer
 - All individual sounds go into this
- This is what we export to have an audio file of our song
